We have assessed the work carried out by the Shariah review and Shariah audit which included examining, on a test basis, each type of transaction, the relevant documentations and procedures adopted by the Retakaful Division.

We have planned and performed our review so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the Retakaful Division has not violated any principles of Shariah.

In our opinion:

1. the contracts, transactions and dealings entered into by the Retakaful Division during the financial year ended 31 March 2021 that we have reviewed are in compliance with the principles of Shariah;
2. there were no earnings that have been realised/unrealised from sources or by means prohibited by the principles of Shariah that have been considered for disposal to charitable causes except for the Shariah non-permissible amount received from the legal case Veheng Global Traders Vs Am General Insurance Bhd & Sun Life Malaysia Takaful Berhad. The amount has been fully cleansed for the charity purposes;
3. the calculation, payment and distribution of zakat are in compliance with the principles of Shariah; and
